ANNEXURE “E”

Procedure/Guidelines for making proposal for Write off

1. Income is recognised in Books of Accounts as per company's Accounting Policy on “Revenue Recognition”. Based on the services/supplies rendered as per the milestone laid down in the contracts, invoices are raised upon the clients and revenue is recognized with corresponding recoverable in the Books of Accounts.

2. Uncertainty arises subsequently relating to realisation of recoverable from the clients for any reasons or recoverable have become too old to be realised or concerned records are untraceable in client/RITES office(s) or Court has given award against company, in such situations management have no option except to write off the debts.

3. The authority for approval of the write off action has been laid down in the delegation of power as contained in the Schedule of Powers (SOP) of RITES. A proposal to write off may be examined by Finance & Accounts section which satisfies one or more of the following criteria :-

3.1 Client has rejected the claim in full or in part on account of unsatisfactory services/supplies. Management also inclined to agree to a greater extent.

3.2 The amount is small and follow up action may cost more than the recoverable amount or initiating any legal/arbitration action may not be cost effective in such case, it would be economical to write off the recoverable.

3.3 In case arbitration clause is invoked and the decision has gone against the company, it may be decided not to take further legal action but to write off recoverable. If no arbitration clause exists, it must be ensured whether legal action needs to be initiated or not? The time limitation under the Limitation Act may also be kept in view.

3.4 Company is not intending to invoke arbitration/legal action against the client but to write off the recoverable to keep good business relation with the client and company expects to get more business.

3.5 Adequate follow-up actions have been taken up at all levels but have not yielded any result. This needs to be mentioned and linked along with the replies/correspondences with the clients.

3.6 Recoverable has become very old and client has expressed inability to pay or outright rejected the claims for want ofrecords, death, superannuation, transfer of offices, etc.

3.7 Follow up actions cannot be continued for want of records either at company level or client's end as a result of sudden demise/resignation/absconding of the concerned incumbent dealing the project. Due to this reason, recoverable may not likely to be realized or even legal action may not be initiated.

3.8 In case no arbitration clause exists in the agreement, legal actions need to be initiated before recoverable becomes time barred as per law of Limitation Act, but no legal action has been initiated within the limitation period and chances of realization of debt is bleak despite follow up.

4. Proposal to write off should include justification in view of possibility recovery of recoverable, legal or other actions costs, period of outstanding, probability of recovery, reasons for rejection, legal position status, effect on future business, operating ratio of the project, etc.

5. In case recoverable is not as per contractual obligations or is due to wrong billing, the same is to be dealt with as per a separate procedure on "Write Back" in the Accounts Manual & not as per this procedure on write off. The concerned unit/office will initiate the proposal to write off through the respective DFO to the competent authority.

ANNEXURE-G

Normalization of Expenditure in the Pre & Post Award Input estimate for projects in India/Abroad.

1) Normalization of exceptional expenditure on items solely for (a) procurement of material (b) outsourcing of consultancy / construction services and (c) turnkey projects or any other expenditure of exceptional nature which warrants similar treatment. 10% of such expenditure is considered as normalised expenditure for the purpose of calculation of Overheads. However, for turnkey projects, 1% of value of work outsourced is considered as normalised expenditure. In case expenses are normalized, approval of concerned Director & Director Finance would be required except for the cases detailed above at (a), (b), (c) and cases where separate in-principle approval for normalization already exists.

2) In case of JV/Consortium projects where RITES handles 100% billing and the JV/Consortium partner raises invoice to RITES for their share of work, 1% of the partner's work value will be treated as normalized expenditure for overhead calculation.
